

LOGISTICS TECHNICIAN

Professional Summary

Driven, compassionate and all-round health care professional with over 5 year practical experience in different paced environment including supply chain management, pharmaceutical and research analysis. Accountable, motivated and responsible with a strong focus on dynamic health care delivery that works. Environmental Microbiology, Food Microbiology, Medical Microbiology, Molecular Biology, Immunology, Microbial physiology and Metabolism. Proven patience and self-discipline Confident public speaker Conflict resolution Personal and professional integrity Relationship and team building Government relations knowledge Cultural awareness and sensitivity Critical thinking proficiency Fund raising and major donor development Effectively influences others Hardworking Professional Summary Education and Training

Experience

Logistics Technician

December 2009 to October 2013 Company Name - City , State

- Managed material management activities and systems involved in requirements determination, inventory control, and receipt, storage and issues of supplies and equipment Computed requirement, determined allowance, and researched and identified material requirements Performed inventories and ensured timely correction of discrepancies.
- Inspected and evaluated inventory management activities Developed methods and improved procedures for storing property Coordinated with maintenance activities on repairable component actions Planned and scheduled material storage and distribution activities.
- Acted as a subject matter expert to the commander on the operation of material management systems and operations Processed information retrievals using supply system databases Developed database retrieval scripts for material management support analysis Controlled and operated the Remote Processing Station (RPS) and remote terminal hardware under the Standard Base Supply System (SBSS).

Customer Care/Public Relation

March 2009 to October 2009 Company Name - City , State

- Actively involved in customer satisfaction services * Analyzed company activities and data to properly assess risk management and improve services.
- Led branch in customer services and insurance package sale.

Laboratory/Research Assistant

August 2006 to October 2006 Company Name

- Ibadan, Oyo state Conducted laboratory, screen house and field experiments; * Conducted sampling with guidance from Research Associate/Manager; * Maintained a sterile work environment in preparation for and during laboratory work; * Ensured proper organization of isolates in cold storage and work areas; * Conducted other assignment as assigned by supervisors.
- Carried out microbiology work involving sample preparation, organism isolations, isolate storage, media preparation; * Ensured proper sampling labeling, organization of work area; * Kept proper records and ensure proper data entry into field and laboratory books.

Intern

February 2006 to July 2006 Company Name - City

- Monitored production and system control in the organization Successfully carried out drug processing and packaging procedures Ensured quality assurance *and engaged in practical laboratory analysis of several company production to test for 100% NAFDAC compliance regulation Inspected Industrial Equipment Professional Experience Participated in different team projects.

Education

Public Health (Mental Health) , 2014 National University - City , State , United States Public Health (Mental Health) Study focused on Community and Public Health, Health and Human Services, HealthService policy, Global Health, Environmental Health, Psychosocial epidemiology, Epidemiology and Biostatistics.

Bachelor of Science : Healthcare Management , 2013 Park University - City , State , United States Healthcare Management Study focused on principles of accounting, Economics, Financial management, Human resource management, principles of management, organizational behavior, Business law, principles of marketing, Legal issues of health care and Quantitative research methods.

Associate of Arts : 2009 Air University - City , State , United States LogisticsStudy focused on supply management, material storage and distribution, logistics automated systems, logistics maintenance system, and stock control

Bachelor of Science : 2008 Ladoke Akintola University - State , Nigeria Applied Biology (Microbiology)Study focused on Environmental pollution, Environmental Pollution, Certifications

Microsoft certified Professional (MCP)SQL 2000 Database AdministratorSAP Business ObjectBusiness Intelligence 4.0 (in-view)

Skills

accounting, Business Intelligence 4.0, Business law, hardware, customer satisfaction, customer services, data entry, databases, Database, Economics, Financial management, Human resource, insurance, inventory management, inventory control, Legal, Logistics, marketing, Microsoft certified Professional, MCP, organizational, packaging, quality assurance, requirement, Research, risk management, SAP, scripts, SQL 2000, stock control, view