SLEEP TECHNOLOGIST, RPSGT

Summary

Healthcare professional with more than ten years' experience seeking an opportunity where I can utilize my skills and knowledge in multiple healthcare settings to have a positive impact impact on patient outcomes. Looking for a work setting in health information management and technology where my previous training in HIPPA Privacy and Security, performance improvement and quality assurance will help position me for career advancement.

Highlights

- Member of AHIMA
- Member of ILHIMA
- Member of HIMSS
- Member of HFMA
- More than ten years healthcare experience
- CPR Certified
- Need minimal supervision
- Analytical
- Critical
- EHR experience
- Skills
- Works proficiently with minimal supervision, fluent communication skills demonstrated daily through interactions with various patient and family demographics, CPR certified, critical thinking while working independently in a patient diagnostic sleep lab, disease management, inventory control by managing waste and reducing duplicate testing, medical terminology, Windows OS, patient evaluation, patient preparation, problem solving, strategic planning, oxygen education and therapy, equipment troubleshooting.

Accomplishments

- Interscore Relability Testing 92% average (expected 85%).
- Obtained my Registered Polysomnographic Technologist license in 01/2015.
- Graduated Valedictorian Hannibal La-Grange University in 2000.

Experience

Sleep Technologist, RPSGT 12/2015 to Current Company Name City , State

- Polysomnogram preparation and set up, diagnostic testing,.
- PAP and oxygen titration studies, monitoring and scoring complete patient.
- studies using AASM standards, Interscore Reliability Testing 92% average (expected 85%), CPR.
- certified, data transfers, Windows OS, work diligently with minimal supervision in a 1:2 technologist to patient ratio.

Neurophysiology Technician, RPSGT 01/2009 to 11/2015 Company Name City , State

- Performing EEG and LTM.
- Measuring in 10-20, patient preparation and education, monitor and note abnormalities.
- Sleep study preparation & set up, prepare & calibrate equipment prior to testing, following AASM protocol for MSLT, MWT, PAP and oxygen studies, assist with scoring sleep studies, fluent communication skills, sharp critical thinking skills, diligently work with minimal supervision.
- Billing patients in outpatient sleep center.

Healthcare Specialist, CRT 09/2005 to 12/2008 Company Name City , State

- Clinical patient evaluation in home setting, implement disease management programs, respiratory & sleep equipment set up and education, fluent communication skills, sharp critical thinking skills, diligently work with minimal supervision.

Education

May, 2000 Hannibal La-Grange University City , State Applied Associates Degree of Science Respiratory Therapy Graduate as Valedictorian of Respiratory Therapy Class*Winner of John Rodgers Memorial Scholarship

Bachelor of Science : Healthcare Information Management & Technology 1999 2017 University of Wisconsin City , State Healthcare Information Management & Technology

Skills

Billing, communication skills, CPR Certified, CPRcertified, critical thinking, disease management, EHR experience, inventory control, managing, medical terminology, Windows OS, Works, patient evaluation, patient preparation, problem solving, Respiratory Therapy, strategic planning, supervision, therapy, troubleshooting